Pupils can take out up to two books at any one time, seniors can take out more, and there is a two-week loan period. You can reserve popular titles and are notified about books and over dues via your Group Tutor.

The LRC has an extensive story book (fiction) collection and information (non-fiction) books to help pupils with schoolwork, investigations and outside interests. The reference section, as well as having conventional encyclopaedias and other information books, also includes magazines and a daily newspaper.

An area of the LRC is devoted to careers information. University and College Prospectuses and other careers literature are freely available for consultation whenever the LRC is open.

The LRC is equipped with 15 PC work stations linked to the school's network for independent study by pupils, along with Internet access.
